Foreword

With our school year swiftly closing we pause to catch a final glimpse of the happiness and friends we've had. Many things have happened this year we shall never forget. We find ourselves holding closely to our hearts the fond memories of the past year at the West Side High. School. The 1956 Treasure Chest is yours. You made it; we preserved it through word and picture.

Dedication

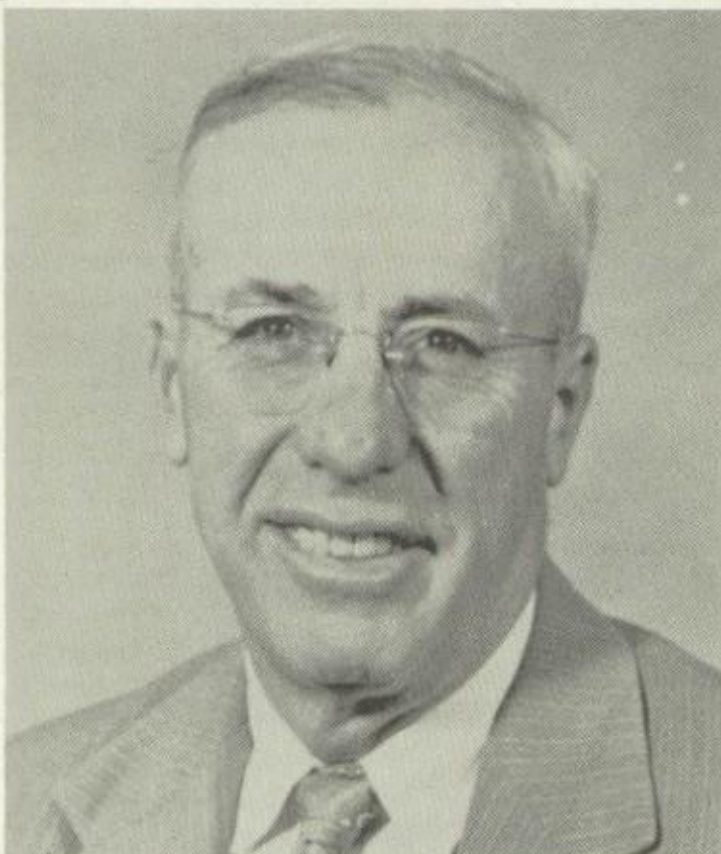

We, the students of West Side High School, missing your quiet manner and pleasant smile, thinking of you as we take part in varied school activities, sympathizing with you because of your misfortune, wishing for your soonest possible recovery and return to school, and cherishing this 1955-56 TREASURE CHEST as a symbol of our school life, happily dedicate this yearbook to a Junior classmate, ARVIS LLOYD, who in the early part of the year was the victim of a serious accident.

In Appreciation

We, the graduating class of West Side High, 1956, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to: our teachers who have guided and instructed us in thought and action; School Board Members who have directed the affairs of our beloved school so efficiently; the Student Body Officers, all students and student committees who have been so helpful and kind in support of our school progress during the past four years; West Side High patrons, friends and alumni who have always been encouraging; Mr. Williams, who has been our class advisor during four years, a patient and tireless friend, ever helpful, yet sincere in his desire that each of us shall be a credit to the school from which we are about to graduate; and each of you individually, and as a group.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent's Message

One of the most important purposes of school is the development of character. "Character" as we think of it is very complex. It is made up of many different character traits.

Of all the traits of character which seems to be the most desirable, to be the most important?

A person may have moral cleanliness, honesty, ambition, poise, dignity, frugality, prudence, temperance, and many other desirable personal qualities, but if he is not RELIABLE, (dependable, trustworthy) he will have little if any lasting value to himself or to any organized effort such as a company, business or governmental agency.

If you are dependable, (reliable, trustworthy) your possibilities are unlimited and your success is practically assured.

Dear Students,

Knowledge we gain from books constitutes only a small part of our high school education. A large part of what we learn, we attain from one another through simply being together. I hope that you have all enjoyed this association as much as I have.

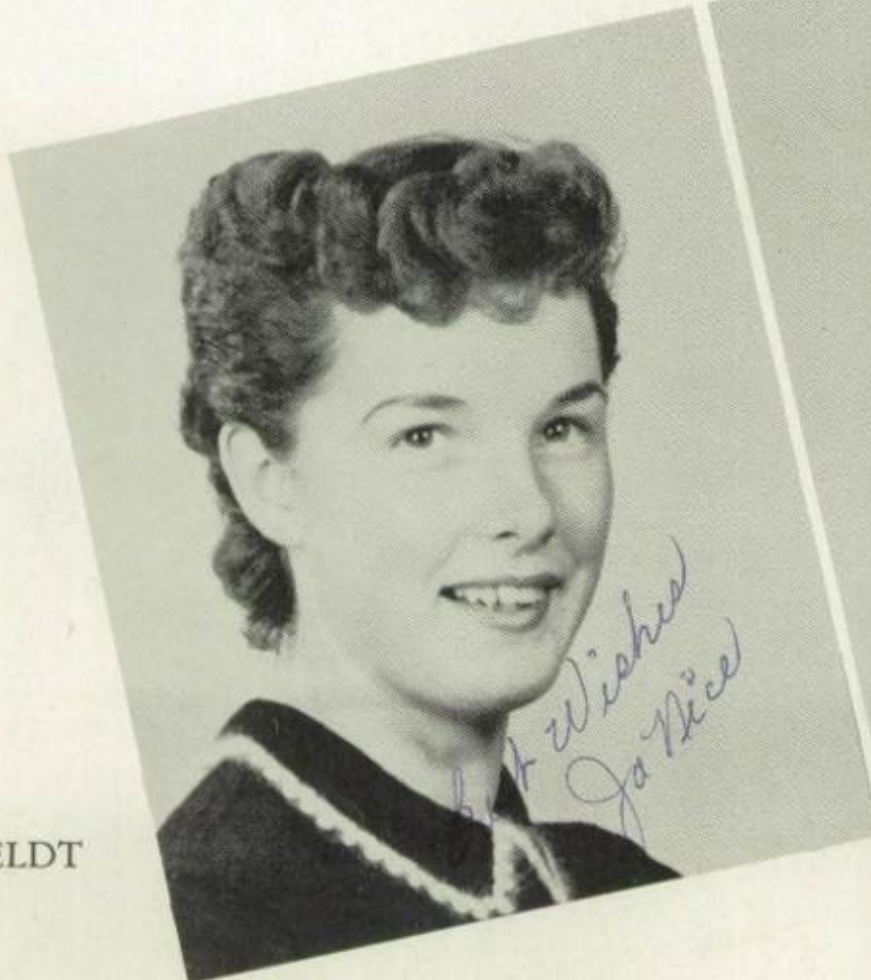

It has been a great honor for me to represent you as your president for this school year. There has never been a finer, more sincere student body anywhere, and I very deeply appreciate the help and assistance that I have received from all of you. It has been a pleasure working with our wonderful Superintendent and faculty, and also with your marvelous choice of very qualified Student Body Officers.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you all the happiness and success that can possibly come to you in the future and also to again thank you for your splendid cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Gary Porter

Boy am I glad she's jealous of us because now we have something to brag about where she doesn't. I'll bet she really wonders why Larry hasn't written back yet. I can't after you to go with Barry. Now it seems funny because you go with him all the time. When Larry gets home we can really have a lot of fun. Remember the party we planned well. He won't be home till he gets here so we won't know when to plan it for but we will still have it.

I have really enjoyed your friendship over the years although we have had our differences. I think of you and then all three of us. Now there is only the two of us, Anna + I. Well we can still have fun. I think here. I have really enjoyed working in the different classes with you. (Don't mind helping each other). But it's really been fun.
